-BUZZWORTHY-

JESUS CHRIST IS THE REASON FOR THE CHRISTMAS SEASON

The Christmas holiday focuses on honoring the sacred birth of Jesus Christ on December 25. The Three Wise Men came to see the newborn Jesus bearing gifts and they embody the seasonal spirit of giving gifts to others. It helps us remember the gestures of love, kindness, and forgiveness. Although exchanging presents has become a major theme of Christmas, let's not forget the reason for the season. This year consider simplifying gift-giving by thinking about how we can give something of ourselves. This could be nothing more than home-cooked dinner for your elderly neighbor, finding a book your friend has been wanting, or just writing a heartfelt note of appreciation to a family member. Starting from a full and grateful heart, rather than from obligation or pressure, is the key to joyful giving.

All of the staff at Christian Wee Learn wish you and your family a Very Merry & Safe Christmas!
